THIS WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

Summer Vacation. Tuesday Morning Prayer at 7:30am, Tuesday Bible Study at 12:30pm and Wednesday Bible Study at 12am are all on hiatus for the summer. All three resume the first week of September.

A Hum of Activity. Although some things are on summer break, many other things continue. Sunday services will continue at 8am and 10am led by the Rev. Jim Ward with help from the the Rev. Stacey Grossman and the Rev. Daniel London. Our six Discipleship Groups will continue to meet as will St. Anne's and six of our seven Outreach relationships. Child Care continues as well.

Mark Your Calendar. On Sunday June 28th the parking lot across the street will be closed due to the Street Painting festival. On Saturday, July 11th at 7pm we host a Harpsichord Concert.

Three Books for Summer Reading from Christopher.

1. The Restoration Project. I recommend my book not just for self-promotion, but because in the book I do my best to present the core practices that are so essential to our shared life here at St. Paul's.
2. Toxic Charity by Robert Lupton is a book I've recommended several times. It helps us stay clear and healthy in the way we follow Jesus' teaching to serve the least.
3. Sticky Faith by Kara Powell and Chap Clark. This book is filled with practical and research based ideas for building lasting faith in our children. I recommend this book not just for parents but for all who want to do the best they can to hand down their Christian faith to the generations after them.

Sabbatical. A standard part of the contract with a Rector in the Episcopal Church is that the Rector accrues a month of sabbatical for every year she or he serves. Five years ago, after Christopher had been at St. Paul's for six years he took two months sabbatical. That's when he walked the Camino. This year, his eleventh, he's taking one month to be with family, to travel and to write. He returns August 11th.

CHRISTOPHER'S SUMMER MESSAGE

Saturday we leave for our summer break. Everything is in great shape for the summer. With Judy Rowcliffe, Mike Struck, Jim Ward and your many other leaders, all will be well.

Here are three dates to save now so that we start strong together in the fall.

Baseball! The San Rafael Pacifics have their last home game starting at 1:05pm on Sunday, August 30th versus the Stompers. Our St. Paul's Choir will be singing the national anthem and so we're making this an all generation kick off event. The park is a short walk from the church.

Discipleship Group Workshop. On Saturday, September, 12th we kick off the first of our four-part series Strengthen Your Spiritual Core with a three hour Discipleship Group workshop from 9am to noon. Join people from around the Bay Area as we learn about, and share stories of, this powerful form of Christian life.

Open House. Chloe and I have hosted many St. Paul's parties at our house in San Anselmo. On Sunday, September 13th from 4pm to 6pm we host our first ever Open House for the whole St. Paul's family. Come on by to our home in San Anselmo and meet those great people from the other Sunday service that you rarely see and hardly know!

I'm looking forward to a deeply restful summer and I hope the same for you. My first Sunday back is August 16th.

Blessings,
Christopher

*Each week our rector, The Rev. Christopher H. Martin, sends an email message.

In the coming weeks there will be more information about this growing ministry, including opportunities for everyone to be involved in an action heralded by Christ in Matthew 25:36: "I was in prison and you came to visit me."
