Hymn 168

The cross is brought in and lowered to the ground. People may come up and hammer their nails into the cross.

THE BRINGING IN OF THE CROSS

Once the cross is in place, a minister proclaims.

Behold the wood of the Cross,
People on which was hung our salvation.

The Anthems

We glory in your cross, O Lord, and praise and glorify your holy resurrection; for by virtue of your cross joy has come to the whole world.

May God be merciful to us and bless us, show us the light of his countenance, and come to us.
Let your ways be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.
We glory in your cross, O Lord, and praise and glorify your holy resurrection; for by virtue of your cross joy has come to the whole world.

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

If we have died with him, we shall also live with him; if we endure, we shall also reign with him. We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

O Savior of the world, who by thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us:
Save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

Hymn 166

The people kneel for the Concluding Prayers

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Concluding Prayer Book of Common Prayer, page 282

At the end of the prayer, the people reply Amen.

Closing Hymn 474

Postlude Largo D. Zipoli

The bell is rung thirty-three times, one toll for each year of Jesus' life.
